Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Scripture

John 17:20-23

Common English Bible

“I’m not praying only for them but also for those who believe in me because of their word. I pray they will be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. I pray that they also will be in us, so that the world will believe that you sent me. I’ve given them the glory that you gave me so that they can be one just as we are one. I’m in them and you are in me so that they will be made perfectly one. Then the world will know that you sent me and that you have loved them just as you loved me.”

Welcome

 Blessing

*We need to give each other the space to grow,
to be ourselves, to exercise our diversity.*

We need to give each other space so that we may both give and receive such beautiful things as ideas, openness, dignity, joy, healing, and inclusion.

Dear Friends,

For the past four weeks, including today, we have had special cover art on our bulletins. That art has come to us by one of our very own artists, Dylan Yates. Dylan is one of the young adults of our church. He is the son of Jim and Donna and the brother of Jake. Dylan was raised here at Royal Oak First. He grew up in our Sunday School program, attended choir camp, and he is here almost every Sunday.

Dylan is bright, funny, kind, and he is an artist. He publishes an annual calendar featuring his original work. Dylan is one of the people that makes this church so special.

Dylan lives with autism and for over twenty years he has been teaching this church what it is to be an inclusive community. In fact, Dylan's story here at Royal Oak First has led us to start our new Faith Abilities movement. It's our commitment to making sure that people and their families with autism and any other special needs can find a church home. Will you help us build this movement of inclusion?

We believe every person is a unique, unrepeatable miracle of God with gifts that need to be shared. We are thankful that Dylan has found space to share his gifts with us. We hope you enjoy his art and know that there is place for you to share your gifts as well.

There is room in God's house for all of us. Every single one of us. Each of us has a gift to share. Each of us makes God's love known.

Thank you, Dylan, for showing us God's love.
