LETTER FROM OUR PREACHER

Dear Friends,

Today we celebrate the Second Sunday of Lent, and if you've made some sort of Lenten discipline (giving up chocolate, reducing your social media consumption, spending more time in prayer, etc.), I hope that you have been able to keep those promises. Don't lose heart if you've accidentally eaten a cupcake or two for St. John Chrysostom (a 5th century archbishop of Constantinople), reminds us in his Easter sermon: "Are there any weary with fasting? Let them now receive their wages! If any have toiled from the first hour, let them receive their due reward...And if any delayed until the ninth hour, let him not hesitate; but let him come too. And he who arrived only at the eleventh hour, let him not be afraid by reason of his delay. For the Lord is gracious and receives the last even as the first."

Our scripture reading is the second in our Lenten series "The Stories We Tell: the Parables of Jesus" and is the very familiar story of the "Good Samaritan." The parable reminds us of extending mercy to everyone, even our enemies.

As a mission project for this Lent, we will be handing out bags at the end of the services for collecting toiletries for the OO7 (Outreach on 7th) Essentials Pantry. Your gifts of shampoo, conditioner, toothpaste, and bars of soap are beautiful gifts of mercy that help enable our unhoused friends to retain their dignity and remind them that they are seen and are valuable members of our community. I hope you can help participate in this amazing project!

I pray that your Lent continues to be a spiritual and enriching time as we make our journey to the cross, and ultimately to the resurrection on Easter!

Yours in Christ,
Michael Rosas
